Subject:

FSP - Nevada Request to Extend Waivers # 970120, #970184, #970185

To:

Art Foley, Director
Program Development Division
Food Stamp Program

Attached are three requests from the Nevada Department of Human Resources regarding waivers that exempt the State's Labor Surplus Areas and areas of high unemployment from the provisions of Section 6(o)(2) of the Food Stamp Act, as amended by Section 824 of the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996. The specifics are:

#970120 - Nevada requests this waiver be extended and modified to include Nye County. This request is substantiated by the annual list of labor surplus areas for the period October 1, 2002 to September 30, 2003.

#970184 - Nevada requests this waiver be extended and modified to remove the Las Vegas Colony, Yerington Paiute Reservation and Colony, Yomba Reservation, and Ely Colony which no longer meet this criteria and add Stewart Community on the Washoe Reservation, the Reno-Sparks Colony, and the Winnemucca Colony which now meet this criteria. This waiver request is substantiated by data from the Nevada Department of Employment, Training and Rehabilitation for 2002, which indicates that unemployment rates for the requested reservations exceed 10 percent.

The Washoe Reservation, with members in two different counties, which includes the Dresslerville Colony, Carson Colony, and Stewart Community, has a combined unemployment rate of 12.8%. The Fallon Colony and the Fallon Reservation combine into the Fallon Paiute-Shoshone Reservation, which has a combined unemployment rate of 11.9%.

#970185 - Nevada requests this waiver be extended and modified to remove the Reno-Sparks Colony which no longer meets this criteria and add the Las Vegas Colony, Ely Colony, Yerington Reservation & Trust, and Yomba Reservation who do meet this criteria. This waiver request is substantiated by data from the Nevada Department of Employment, Training and Rehabilitation for 2001 and 2002, indicating labor rates for the requested reservations and colonies.

Basis for Request:

This waiver request is based upon information provided by the Department of Labor, Employment and Training Administration, Federal Register, dated February 4, 2003.

DEPARTMENT OF LABOREmployment and Training -
Administration*Labor Surplus Area Classification
Under Executive Orders 12073 and 10582*ACTION: Notice.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The annual list of labor surplus areas is effective October 1, 2002 for all States.

SUMMARY: The purpose of this notice is to announce the annual list of labor surplus areas for Fiscal Year 2003.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Gay Gilbert, Division Chief, U.S. Employment Service, Employment and Training Administration, 200 Constitution Avenue, NW., Room C 4512, Washington, DC 20210. Telephone: (202) 693-3046.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Department of Labor regulations implementing Executive Orders 12073 and 10582 are set forth at 20 CFR part 654, subparts A and B. These regulations require the Assistant Secretary of Labor to classify jurisdictions as labor surplus areas pursuant to the criteria specified in the regulations and to publish annually a list of labor surplus areas. Pursuant to those regulations the Assistant Secretary of Labor is hereby publishing the annual list of labor surplus areas.

In addition, the regulations provide an exceptional circumstance criteria for classifying labor surplus areas when catastrophic events, such as natural disasters, plant closings, and contract cancellations are expected to have a long-term impact on labor market area conditions, discounting temporary or seasonal factors.

Dated: January 16, 2003.

Emily Stover DeRocco,
Assistant Secretary of Labor.

Eligible Labor Surplus AreasProcedures for Classifying Labor
Surplus Areas

Labor surplus areas are classified on the basis of civil jurisdictions. Civil jurisdictions are now defined as all cities with a population of at least 25,000 and all counties. Townships of 25,000 or more population are also considered as civil jurisdictions in 4 states (Michigan, New Jersey, New York, and Pennsylvania). In Connecticut, Massachusetts, Puerto Rico, and Rhode Island where counties have very limited or no government functions, the classifications are done for individual towns.

A civil jurisdiction is classified as a labor surplus area when its average unemployment rate was at least 20 percent above the average unemployment rate for all states (including the District of Columbia and Puerto Rico) during the previous two calendar years. During periods of high national unemployment, the 20 percent ratio is disregarded and an area is classified as a labor surplus area if its unemployment rate during the previous two calendar years was ten percent or more. This ten percent ceiling concept comes into operation whenever the two-year average unemployment rate for all states was 8.3 percent or above (i.e., 8.3 percent times the 1.20 ratio equals ten percent). Similarly, a "floor" concept of six percent is used during periods of low national unemployment for an area to be classified as a labor surplus area. The six percent "floor" comes into effect whenever the average unemployment rate for all states during the two-year reference period was five percent or less.

The classification procedures also provide for the designation of labor surplus areas under exceptional circumstance criteria. The exceptional circumstance procedures permit the regular classification criteria to be waived when an area experiences a significant increase in unemployment which is not temporary or seasonal and which was not adequately reflected in the data for the two-year reference period. In order for an area to be classified as a labor surplus area under the exceptional circumstance criteria, the State Workforce Agency must submit a petition requesting such classification to the U.S. Department of Labor's Employment and Training Administration (ETA). The current conditions for exceptional circumstance classification are: an area unemployment rate of at least six percent for each of the three most recent months; projected unemployment rate of at least six percent for each of the next twelve months; and documented information that the exceptional circumstance event has already occurred. The State Workforce Agency may file petitions on behalf of civil jurisdictions, as well as Metropolitan Statistical Areas or Primary Metropolitan Statistical Areas, as defined by the Office of Management and Budget. The addresses of State Workforce Agencies are available at the end of this description.

The Department of Labor issues the labor surplus area listing on a fiscal year basis. The listing becomes effective each October 1 and remains in effect through the following September 30. The reference period used in preparing the current list was January 2000 through December 2001. The national average unemployment rate during this period (including data for Puerto Rico) fell below five percent. As a result, the six percent "floor" rate explained in the second paragraph, went into effect for the Fiscal Year 2003 labor surplus area classifications. Therefore, areas are included on the current annual labor surplus area listing because their average unemployment rate during the reference period was six percent or above. During the course of the fiscal year, the annual listing is updated on the basis of exceptional circumstances petitions submitted by State Workforce Agencies and approved by the Employment and Training Administration. The Fiscal Year 2003 classifications will be in effect from October 1, 2002, through September 30, 2003.

Dear Mr. Stewart:

Nevada requests an extension of Food Stamp Waiver #970185, which waives food stamp limits on receipt of benefits for able-bodied adults who reside on the Las Vegas Colony, Yerington Reservation and Trust, and Yomba Reservation. Labor force rates for the three tribal jurisdictions failed to exceed 10%, but did meet a combined 2001 and 2002 unemployment rate more than 20% above the national average of 5.8% over the last two years.

The Reno-Sparks Colony was included in Waiver #970185 in 2001. In 2002 the labor force rate for the Reno-Sparks Colony exceeded 10% and is included in Waiver #970184.

The attached waiver request is substantiated by the Nevada Employment Security Division and Department of Employment, Training and Rehabilitation information for 2001 and 2002, indicating labor rates for the requested reservations and colony.

Your prompt attention to this request is appreciated. If you require additional information, please contact Leslie Danihel, Chief of Eligibility and Payments, at (775) 684-0663.
